For the fourth time in three years the Petworth Baby Dolls succeeded in socking the short end to the Brightwood Framps yesterday in the Suburban League. Incidentally, they inserted the sharp edge of defeat under Brightwood's fifth rib with all the science and effectiveness of a Sicilian gentleman in the dark, locking the pennant hopes of the Tramps in a large, iron-bound chest and losing the key.

"Bev" Garrett and "Dick" Robertson opposed each other in the box, and the little Petworth twirler entirely outpitched his rival. He allowed but four hits, all scattered, and was very effective in the pinches. The only run that Brightwood scored was the result of an error. followed by Bergman's two-base hit.
